

About the CCBA

Founded in 1977, the Citrus County Building Alliance (CCBA) is located in Lecanto, Florida.

CCBA is a construction industry organization comprised of contractor and associate members. The association promotes quality, affordable housing for Citrus County, while creating a favorable business climate for its members.

Our mission is to serve our members and community through proactive involvement in government activities affecting the building industry; ethical business practices, promotion of members products and services; continuing education and enhanced membership benefits.

CCBA now offers 5 membership types:

Builder/Developer/Remodeler (applies to any licensed building contractor) $400/yr

Associate Member (applies to any business who feels affected by or wishes to support the building industry) $400/yr

501c Member (applies to organizations under the 501c tax category, with some restrictions) $180/yr

Individual Member (applies to anyone wishing to be involved, that is not promoting a business, with some restrictions) $180/yr

Affiliate Member (applies to employees and/or existing contacts of established members of any other category) $25/yr
